

On a Mountain High

Words and music by Peter Brunette

1.

A D A
This fair Earth is all the heaven I shall ever seek,

D Bm E7
And her charms are all my consolation.

A D A
This bright Sun that shines upon the mighty and the meek
D Bm E7 A
Lights my path to glory and sal - va - tion.

CHORUS:

A D A F#m
On a mountain high,

Bm A7 D
Where the meadows meet the sky,

A D Bm E7
I have walked for miles on hallowed ground.

A D E7 A F#m
In a valley low,

Bm A7 D
Where the peaceful waters flow,

A Bm E7 A D A
Lay my blessed body gently down.

2.

A D A
Just one rare and precious moment in the noonday shade,

D Bm E7
List'ning to the sound of children's laughter,

A D A
Just one kiss from my beloved, I would never trade

D Bm E7 A
For all the joys of paradise here - af - ter

CHORUS:

A D A F#m
On a mountain high,

Bm A7 D
Where the meadows meet the sky,

A D Bm E7
I have walked for miles on hallowed ground.

A D E7 A F#m
In a valley low,
Bm A7 D
Where the peaceful waters flow,
A Bm E7 A D A
Lay my blessed body gently down.

3.

A D A
When we light the lamp of mercy, won't our spirit shine
D Bm E7
Brighter than the stars that we are made of.
A D A
When we light the lamp of wisdom, aren't we bound to find
D Bm E7 A
We've got nothing left to be afraid of.

CHORUS:

A D A F#m
On a mountain high,
Bm A7 D
Where the meadows meet the sky,
A D Bm E7
I have walked for miles on hallowed ground.
A D E7 A F#m
In a valley low,
Bm A7 D
Where the peaceful waters flow,
A Bm E7 A D A
Lay my blessed body gently down.

ENDING:

A Bm E7 A D A
Lay my blessed body gently down.
A Bm E7 A D A
Lay my blessed body gently down.
