

Sweet Marie

Words and music by Peter Brunette

1.

C F C
Oh, the columbine is lovely,
F C
And the rose more lovely still,
F G7 C Am
But the sweetest flower of all, my dear,
Dm G7
Is the golden daffodil.
C F C
Oh, the hyacinth is fragrant
F C
As it glistens with the dew,
F G7 C Am
But the sweetest flower of all, my dear,
Dm G7 C C7
Isn't half as sweet as you.

CHORUS:

F C
You're as vibrant as the meadow
C7 F
And as bracing as the stream.
G7 C
Oh, my sweet Marie, you will always be
Dm G7 C G7 C7
The darling of my dreams.
F C
You're as sprightly as the swallow
C7 F
And as constant as the dove.
G7 C
Oh, my sweet Marie, you will always be
Dm G7 C
My one and only love.

2.

C F C
I will love you in the morning,
F C
I will love you at high noon,

F G7 C Am
But I'll love you best in the still of night
Dm G7
Underneath the silver moon.
C F C
I will love you in the summer,
F C
I will love you in the fall,
F G7 C Am
But I'll love you best in the wintertime
Dm G7 C C7
When the storm clouds come to call.

CHORUS:

F C
You're as vibrant as the meadow
C7 F
And as bracing as the stream.
G7 C
Oh, my sweet Marie, you will always be
Dm G7 C G7 C7
The darling of my dreams.
F C
You're as sprightly as the swallow
C7 F
And as constant as the dove.
G7 C
Oh, my sweet Marie, you will always be
Dm G7 C
My one and only love.
